FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chico Chamber and the City of Chico to Host 2020 Business Summit & State of the City Address

January 15, 2020 CHICO, CA The Chico Chamber of Commerce will co-host the official 2020 Business Summit & State of the City Address with the City of Chico on Friday, January 24, 2020, at 8:30 a.m. in the CARD Community Center located at 545 Vallombrosa Avenue in Chico. This annual event is free and open to the public BUT RSVPs are required as seating is limited. The event is expected to reach maximum capacity.

The Business Summit will include an annual State of the City address by the Mayor of the City of Chico, Randall Stone. Other presentations include overview of the Chico Chamber Special Report from Chamber 2020 Board Chair, Jolene Francis, CFRE with Enloe Medical Center; City of Chico Community Update from Mark Orme, City Manager, City of Chico; 2020 Economic and Business Climate Outlook delivered by Mark Francis with Golden Valley Bank. Following these presentations, audience Q&A will be encouraged.

“Bringing together business and city leaders, the annual Business Summit and State of the City Address is an excellent opportunity to get an update on issues that impact our local and regional economies.” said Jolene Francis, Chair of the Chamber Board.

Mark Francis, President & CEO, Golden Valley Bank says, “It’s been quite a year economically with outside money coming into our communities. It will be interesting to see how long that money can take us in to the future.”

RSVP to the Chamber by registering online at chicochamber.com, calling 530.891.5556 or emailing info@chicochamber.com.
